The yearling restaurant and lodge

NOW OPEN FOR LUNCH ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY AT NOON! The Yearling Restaurant would like to welcome you to Cross Creek Florida. The Yearling Restaurant was first open in 1952, just down the road from Marjorie Kinan Rawlings home in Cross Creek. The restaurant was named after her famous novel, The Yearling. Her home still stands in Cross Creek and is open to vistors year round. We have tried to capture the flavor and spirit of old Florida, as she portrayed it her books. Please stop by and sample old Florida, as it was where you can enjoy the sights and cuisine today just as they were, in the early 1900's. The Yearling Restaurant is located in Cross Creek, just 14 miles from Gainesville and 25 miles from Ocala. Cross Creek connects Orange Lake to the south and Loclossa Lake to the north. Both lakes offer freshwater fishing at its best. Wildlife abounds around the restaurant. The Ocala National Forest is just to the south and west of the restaurant. The highway to the restaurant has been named a Florida Scenic Highway. The Yearling is considered one of the best restaurants in Florida by Florida Trend Magazine. The enchantment of Cross Creek will cast a spell. You may also choose to spend the night in one of seven restored cottages at the Secret River Lodge found along the Creek. For more info on lodging please contact us. Our menu includes items such as: Grilled Chicken Breast, Stuffed Flounder, Deep Fried Clams, and Prime Rib. More traditional items include: Venison, Quail, Cooter, Froglegs, Alligator and Quail. We also have a large private dining area available for private party dining on request. Check us out in the St. Petersburg Times! The Yearling Restaurant 14531 East County Road 325 Hawthorne, Florida 32640 352-466-3999 Hours Thursday: Noon-8:00 Friday: Noon-9:00 Saturday: Noon-9:00 Sunday: Noon-8:00 Updated January 14, 2021 The Yearling Restaurant in Cross Creek is a historic treasure and the food is great, too. This rustic old place has been a Florida dining legend since 1952. The Yearling Restaurant, Cross Creek For many years, with some interruptions, this quaint dining place served thousands of hungry Florida Gator fans, including me. It was a tradition for many of us Gator faithful who would stop in after a University of Florida football game in Gainesville on our separate ways back to Orlando, Tampa, and other Florida towns south of Gainesville. Yearling Restaurant Sign The Yearling Restaurant has a Hawthorne mailing address, but the physical location of this place is in Cross Creek.If you love Old Florida and the Pulitzer Prize winning work of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, you should really visit this Old Florida restaurant. Yearling Entrance Lobby Although The Yearling is noted for its authentic Florida cracker cuisine, it is it's proximity to Cross Creek and Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings State Park that makes it a special treat for lovers of Old Florida.Just don't be expecting a fancy literary boutique style cafe; this is a southern restaurant, and it's in the middle of rural cracker country. The weathered old restaurant building is not impressive from the outside, but don't let that stop you from going inside. This rustic old place is where you go for good ole Florida vittles.I first discovered this Old Florida treasure in 1963 while a student at the University of Florida in nearby Gainesville. I was still Yankee wet behind the years in those days, and was quite dubious about the food.I knew nothing about gator tail, cooter (freshwater turtle), grits and greens (turnip greens).The restaurant was a favorite for Gator football fans travelling home from Gainesville after Gator home games. It closed a couple of times over the years, but has been reopened now since 2002. Meal at The Yearling Restaurant The atmosphere inside the old building is rustic, warm and friendly and relaxing. It is family friendly, but the bar and lounge is still a place one wouldn't mind taking a date for relaxation and music.The food and service and music have usually been good the several times I have visited.My advice is to stck with simple favorites, especially the local dishes such as catfish, frog legs, cheese grits, greens and coleslaw.Cooter is no longer on the menu, but there is still plenty of other good stuff you will enjoy. I like fried food, and The Yearling is good at it and keeps it from getting too greasy. The Yearling Restaurant, Cross Creek They also serve venison (if you loved Bambi and the deer in the movie The Yearling, pass this one up), along with more conventional food animals like shrimp, grouper, prime rib and even a few fancier items like escargot and filet mignon.Being a southern restaurant, you'd better ask for "unsweetened" ice tea if that's your preference, because "sweet tea" is automatically served.The full bar can also provide you anything else you'd like to drink. I'm not normally a dessert person, but love to have their sour orange pie when I am there. Willie "Big Toe" Green Willie "Big Toe" Green has been the entertainer on a few of my recent visits. He specializes in blues music on the guitar and harmonica, and he is very good.I don't know the story of his nickname, but his music makes you want to stay around for a few more drinks than you normally would. You might be wise to bring along a sober friend to drive you home. Another option is to spend the night in one of the rustic cabins adjacent to the property or stay at the Herlong Mansion bed and breakfast in nearby Micanopy. Guest Cabin at The Yearling Restaurant The Yearling is in the middle of Old Florida fish camp country, and well worth a visit. It is where I learned there are two kinds of Yankees: those that love southern food and culture, and those that don't.Speaking for myself, I am one of the former.Operating hours:Thu: Noon-8:00 PMFri: Noon-9:00 PMSat: Noon-9:00 PMSun: Noon-8:00 PMMake sure to call them before you go just to make sure. (Photo: Bonnie Gross. When you visit Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Historic State Park or the Micanopy and Gainesville area, the best way to get the most of the experience is to eat like a cracker.Fortunately, it's easy to do.Almost next door to the Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings state park is The Yearling restaurant, a restaurant founded in 1952, when Rawlings was still alive and writing. The restaurant celebrates the Florida cracker culture that so enchanted Rawlings when she came to Cross Creek.Interior of the Yearling restaurant is full of vintage items and antiques.
